What does it mean if I DO NOT have a Summary Care Record?

NHS healthcare staff treating you may not be aware of your current medications in order to treat you safely and effectively.

NHS healthcare staff may not be aware of any allergies/adverse reactions to medications and may prescribe or administer a drug/treatment with adverse consequences.

If you have any questions, or if you wish to discuss your choices or concerns, please telephone the NHS Summary Care Record Information Line on 0845 603 8510.

If you remain unsure about whether or not to have a Summary Care Record please contact your participating practice.
